To Whom It May Concern,

I have concerns about the proposed redistricting that would alter the boundaries of the 14th Legislative District as it ignores the logical boundaries of the area. Loudonville is a close-knit community, and the changes would divide it unnecessarily. Please be aware that separating Loudonville from Menands is also illogical--Menands and Loudonville are uniquely situated and it certainly seems to make sense to keep them together in one district--particularly with the growth expected for Menands in the upcoming years.

I would suggest that it would be more appropriate to remove the area north of Rt. 378 and east of Rt. 9 from the district.

Sincerely,

Noelle W [REDACTED]
