

SAGE Table is an initiative launched in 2017 to fight isolation in the LGBTQ+ community through the power of intergenerational connections.

SAGE Friendly

Do you remember? The 21st night of September?

A night to remember...

A nostalgic evening of music and words without borders.

Thursday, September 21, 2023

5:00pm to 7:30pm

Wolferts Roost

Van Renssealer Blvd., Albany

Music by:

"Completely Different" • Joe Ventura , Soloist

Rick Angerami, Music Coordinator • Carol Durant, Poet and Playwright

Diane Cameron Pascone, Writer • David Pascone, Educator

Dinner promptly at 5:00. Limited seating available.

RSVP by September 15 by calling: (518) 447-7198

An Age-friendly city or community is a place that adapts its services, programs, and physical structures to be more inclusive and receptive to the needs of its older adults...

Daniel P. McCoy
Albany County Executive

Deborah C. Riitano
Commissioner

ALBANY COUNTY
Cares about our community